Writers with some publishing record are invited to apply for a place at the Michael King Writers' Centre Residential Workshop.

Now in its second year, the Residential Workshop, which is limited to 20 writers, will focus on biography, autobiography and memoir. Writers will hear leading authors and publishers discuss their experiences in research, writing, book structure and publishing. There will be opportunities to discuss issues with speakers and current projects with fellow writers in a focused but relaxed environment.

Time: midday Saturday 23rd to midday Monday 25th October 2010 (Labour Weekend).

Cost: $440.00 plus GST, including all meals and two night's accommodation. Payment is due following acceptance.

Closing date for applications: 18th July 2010. Please include a writing CV. Registration forms will be sent to those accepted by 1st August 2010.
